Great Battle Is On, 100 Miles From London

FOUR GERMAN TORPEDO-BOAT DESTROYERS ARE SUNK

THIRD PROGRESSIVE IS ARRESTED FOR FRAUDS IN PRIMARY ELECTION

Another Progressive fell into the toils of the law this morning when Edward C. Wiles, who served as an election officer in Precinct No. 30 at Ninth and Broadway during the primaries, was arrested in a saloon at Second and Jackson streets by Sheriff Frank Barnett and Deputy Sheriff Barrett and was lodged in the county jail, along with two other Progressives and a Socialist, where he is being held in default of $12,000 bail. Wiles, who has evaded arrest since last Thursday, was indicted by the grand jury on four counts, charging him with perjury, forgery, falsification of public records and false registration.

Wiles registered as a Progressive and swore that he had been in the State for the period of one year, whereas, according to District Attorney Hynes, he was only here three months. He is a peddler and lives in the Vendome Hotel on Washington street.

The fourth member of the indicted quartet who are alleged to have converted the franchise privileges of many voters into one of the worst public scandals that has involved Alameda county for many years, has been allotted a cell in the corridors of the county jail in proximity to his teammates of the primaries.

HAS BEEN ABSENT.

For a number of days since he was first called as a witness in the Superior Court during the election contest between County Clerk Cook and George E. Gross, Progressive candidate for the office of county clerk, Wiles has not frequented his old haunts. District Attorney Hynes insisted that he was in the vicinity and that he be taken into custody with the result that this morning he was followed from the foot of Jackson street into a nearby saloon, where he was arrested. With Wiles in the county jail are:

Charles L. Gale, a Progressive, election officer of precinct 40, held on $20,000 bail.

James Higgins, a Progressive election officer of precinct 30, held on $12,000 bail.

Frederic S. Beach, a Socialist, and officer in precinct 37, held on $24,000 bail.

Up to date no one has appeared at the jail to furnish cash bail or bonds for the release of any of the indicted men. Attorney George McDonough and James Greely have been retained to defend them and in the meantime the prisoners are being held incommunicado upon order of the district attorney.

The grand jury is expected to convene next Tuesday, at which time it is rumored that other phases of the election frauds will be taken up.

$150,000,000 Value of Goods Sent Europe

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Supplies and food amounting to $150,000,000 have been sent to Europe from Chicago since war was declared, according to figures made public today by John J. Arnold, chairman of the foreign relations committee of the Chicago Association of Commerce.

In one week a direct shipment of $12,000,000 worth of meat was made. The average weekly sales of provisions shipped in Chicago was said to be about $15,000,000.

True Bills Returned Against Ball Players

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 17.—True bills were returned today by the county grand jury against Frank Arreianes, pitcher of the Coast League Mission club; pitcher Elmer Davis, Portland third baseman; Bert Roach, an actor, and Joseph Berger, a jewelry store proprietor. They are alleged to have been members of a ring that trafficked in school girls. No true bill was found against Elmer Lober.

FRENCH OFFICE CLAIMS PROGRESS AT TWO POINTS

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, Oct. 17 (by wireless).—According to an announcement made in Berlin today, German troops in the vicinity of Ostend have arrived at the North Sea, and fighting is going on as far west as Dunkirk. Belgium today appears to be almost completely in German possession. The French and British troops are reported as cut off on all sides, particularly around Ypres.

By Associated Press.

BORDEAUX, Oct. 17, 3:25 p. m.—An early and decisive conclusion of the fighting in Northern France is not expected in competent military circles here. It is believed that the situation of the opposing armies will remain unchanged for some time to come. Damp fall weather has now set in and the roads are heavy and the air laden with mists, making extended operations difficult.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 17, 7:10 p. m.—The secretary of the British Admiralty announces that the British light cruiser Undaunted, accompanied by the torpedo boat destroyers Lance, Lennox, Legion and Loyal, engaged four German torpedo boat destroyers off the Dutch coast this afternoon. All of the German destroyers were sunk.

SEARCH HILLS FOR ARMED CONVICT

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 17.—Frank Creeks, life-terminer, who escaped from Folsom prison last night after he and Convict George Phelps had attacked and killed Night Sergeant John P. Drury, so far has eluded the several parties that are searching the hills about Folsom for him. The sheriffs of all the adjoining counties have taken up the chase as they expect Creeks to give battle.

He is armed with a revolver and has ten rounds of ammunition besides the cartridges in the gun. Creeks is considered a desperate man and doubtless will fight before surrendering, as he knows return to prison will mean hanging.

Bloodhounds from Stockton were put on the chase this morning, but owing to the fact that a heavy rain fell during the night they could do nothing.

In the break, engineered by two convict cellmates, unrivaled in daring and ingenuity, Harold Flash, sentenced to serve twenty years for attempted robbery in Sacramento county, and Night Sergeant J. S. Drury were killed. Guards Joe Kerr and Frank Maier were wounded and Convict Frank Creeks, a life-terminer, escaped with a revolver and ammunition is now supposed to be hiding in the brush on the opposite side of the American river.

The break came with no sign of previous trouble at 8:30 o'clock last evening, timed to catch the sergeant and one guard as they brought four revolvers from the yard into the inside of the prison.

The ingenuity of the two convicts, who have been recorded as exemplars.

LONDON, Oct. 17, 3:57 p. m.—The steam trawler Ajax, out of Grimsby, has been blown up in the North Sea by a German mine. Nine members of the crew lost their lives.

British and German Prisoners Exchanged

LONDON, Oct. 17, 3:59 a. m.—The Associated Press says the Cologne Gazette has published a message from Kiel saying that 157 prisoners of war, men attached to the British ambulance corps, have arrived at the German-Danish frontier for exchange with an equal number of German ambulance corps men held by the British. The Englishmen will travel home by way of Copenhagen.

English Aeroplane Shot Down, Is Reported

LONDON, Oct. 17, 10 a. m.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Amsterdam says that according to the German paper Der Tag, an English aeroplane, was shot down near Peronne, France, inside the German lines. The two aviators aboard were captured.

REPORT GERMANS LEAVING OSTEND.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 17, 8:25 a. m.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Flushing, Netherlands, sends the following regarding German movements in Northwestern Belgium:

"The German troops are leaving Ostend for the east. Approximately 5000 are lodged in the public buildings of Ostend. Two thousand have left Zeebrugge and there are no Germans between Heist and Sluis. The Germans billeted at Zeebrugge are behaving well, but those at Maldegem have caused considerable damage.

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Oct. 17, 2:50 p. m.—The official statement given out at the French war office this afternoon is as follows:

"In Belgium the German troops occupying Western Belgium have not crossed the line running from Ostend at Thorout to Roulers, to Menin. There is relative quiet along the greater part of the front.

"On our left wing there has been no change. In the region of Ypres, on the right bank of the Lys, the allied troops have occupied Fleurbaix, as well as the immediate approaches to Armentieres.

"In the region of Arras and also in the vicinity of St. Mihiel we have continued to gain ground.

"In the Russian field of operations there has been no change of importance on the front in East Prussia.

"Along the middle reaches of the Vistula river the Austro-German armies have been driven to the defensive along the entire front. To the south of Przemyśl the fighting continues and the Russians have taken 500 prisoners."

By Associated Press.

STRUGGLE BETWEEN WINGS.

LONDON, Oct. 17, 10:30 a. m.—German forces, as was predicted, have occupied Ostend, on the North Sea, near where the German right wing and the allies' left are struggling in the latest phase of what was once the battle of the Aisne.

Reports reaching London say that German imagination has been fired by the taking of Ostend, and the cry now is not only "On to Calais," but "On to Boulogne."

By Associated Press.

What progress, if any, the Germans have made since they entered Ostend Thursday morning is not known here, but their next objective apparently is Dunkirk. Opinion in England seems to differ as to what part the British fleet would play should the battle continue to skirt the coast line. Reports that British dreadnaughts would back up the French, British and Belgian forces from the straits of Dover seem to originate in German sources.

London papers generally depreciate the importance of the German occupation of Belgian coast, pointing out that the British mine field prevents the enemy's bringing ships to operate.

ZEPPELIN PREPARES HIS DIRIGIBLE FLEET TO ATTACK LONDON

FIGHTING IN OSTEND MADE BELGIUM CRITICAL BASE OF RAID

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 17, 2:10 p. m.—Within 100 miles of London, the most critical battle-viewed from its effect on the immediate fortunes of the opposing armies—that has marked this colossal campaign is at present ebbing and flowing along a line stretching through Belgium and further westward into the French Department of the North.

The Germans have prepared for a renewal of their vigorous offensive by joining their victorious troops from Antwerp to the main army. Much more is published in British newspapers of German reinforcements than of accessions to the ranks of the allied armies. Meantime the German offensive is meeting just as strenuous an opposition from the allied left which remains the most important position as it has been throughout the campaign. "Everywhere our ground has been held and at some points around has been gained," is the latest report from General Joffe, commander-in-chief of the French army, on the operations in this particular field.

The British War Information Bureau is Sphinx-like as to current events, contenting itself with trying to amuse the nation with trivial sidelights, having no direct bearing on the campaign.

The only statement that has emanated from the Bureau up to 2 o'clock this afternoon was a denial intended to lay the ghosts of the rumors that followed the sinking of the British cruiser Hawke. "There is no truth whatever in rumors that any vessels of His Majesty's navy has been sunk or has otherwise met with disaster, other than those about which announcements have already been made," said the official pronouncement.

LONDON ALARMED.

Grave alarm is felt in London today following partly authenticated reports that Zeppelin airships are being transported by rail to Ostend for an attack on the British coast. Count Zeppelin himself is declared to be directing the work, assisted by Colonel Schmiedicke and Professor Heigesell of the Zeppelin branch of the German army.

The report declares that a large number of the big dirigibles will be used in the coming attack and that ample provision for their housing has already been arranged at Ostend, which will be used as a base of operations.

TO-DAY'S WAR DEVELOPMENTS

The German army that successfully besieged Antwerp has swept victoriously westward along the Belgian coast until now with its right resting on Ostend it forms the extreme right of the German line stretching from the North Sea to the Swiss frontier.

A great battle to determine whether the advancing German hosts will be stopped in Western Belgium or push into France, seizing Dunkirk and Calais on the strait of Dover, must come soon and quite possibly is being fought today.

Official intelligence is markedly meager today and this is invariably the case when the belligerents are particularly active.

The French official statement this afternoon says that the German troops occupying Western Belgium have not crossed the line running from Ostend south to Menin. The allied troops have occupied Fleurbaix and the immediate approaches to Armentieres, it is announced, while further gains are claimed in the region of Arras and the vicinity of St. Mihiel.

Berlin announces that a gigantic battle is progressing in the eastern theater, where the Austro-German forces have taken positions along the Vistula and San rivers.

Vienna states officially that fighting continued Thursday along the entire battle front from Strzy and Sambor, both to the southeast of Przemyśl, to the mouth of the San.

The most recent advices from Petrograd claimed Russian successes in Russian Poland. All sources agree that there is a lull in the struggle on the East Prussian frontier following battles in which neither army won a decided advantage.

A correspondent at Flushing, Netherlands, reports that the greater part of the German army after the occupation of Ostend left for the east.

ROYAL HOLLAND-LLOYD LINER GOES ASHORE

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 17, 12:55 p. m.—In a dispatch from Dover, the correspondent of the Evening News says the Dutch steamer Tubantia of the Royal Holland-Lloyd line went ashore on the coast of Kent today while on her way to Rotterdam from Buenos Ayres, which port she left September 25th. The Tubantia is believed to have a considerable number of passengers on board. Assistance has been summoned from Dover and other ports.

RAIN DRENCHES BATTLEFIELDS; CAUSES ARMIES DISCOMFORT

INTEREST CENTERS ON FIGHTING ON LEFT WING OF THE ALLIES

Associated Press. PARIS, Oct. 17, 6:20 a. m.—A heavy rain last night drenched the battlefields, thus adding to the discomforts of the troops and the difficulties of operations. With the resumption of fighting to interest centered on the allies' left wing. The brevity of the recent official communications caused comment in Paris and the fact that fighting has been going on in the north of France is the topic of the present comparative calm is not the dull preceding calm. The joining of the barrier between the coast and Ypres to that of the existing front line makes it impossible for the judgment of French military experts to turn the allies. On the contrary it will be necessary for the Germans to attack the allies on their front, and it has been thought here at such an attempt would be made between Ostend and Ghent.

The Count Zeppelin, with his aides, has effected the war airship to a remarkable degree, and the gravity of the situation in London is magnified when it is remembered that Germany has 100 of these death-dealing flyers ready for use in war. In the meantime aeroplanes are being prepared for defensive work.

TRAVELERS PROTEST. NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—A resolution and letter asking President Wilson to protest against bomb dropping from Zeppelins and aeroplanes upon European cities were adopted by 200 members on the steamship Olympic, which arrived here last night from London. Hopkinson Smith, the American novelist, one of the passengers, mailed the resolution to the president as soon as he stepped ashore. With it he addressed a personal letter authorized by those who signed the resolution. "We feel it is not a question of neutrality," he writes, "but a question of humanity." "We feel that any nation that is unwilling to heed our wise and humane counsel would forfeit the sympathy of the world." "The resolution was adopted by a vote of 200 to 1 on Thursday night. The President is asked to protest against the practice of the following reasons: "Because it is contrary to the instincts of all self-respecting nations. "As being sure to alienate every article of sympathy from those incurring such outrages. "As not only brutal and cruel in the last degree, but without any other military advantage to the aggressor. "As maintaining and killing of innocent non-combatants who are helpless against such attacks."

King Albert Will Never Leave Army

Associated Press. LONDON, Oct. 17.—"Tell everybody I will never leave my army if I leave Belgium." This declaration was made by King Albert of Belgium to a Belgian diplomat who interviewed the ruler on Wednesday, according to the Daily Express, which quotes the diplomat. The King continued: "Our army has retreated from Antwerp and concentrated brilliantly. All ready to give their lives, as am I, for Belgium. I feel that this beautiful country, so peaceful, so industrious, should be occupied even temporarily by so wanton an enemy. "I feel that whatever has been done by the Belgian army and the Belgian people, we must suffer reverses, but our confidence of final victory is stronger than ever. We are beaten, perhaps, or the time being, but we are not crushed."

REPORT HEAVY FIGHTING IN GERMANY'S AFRICAN COLONY

By Associated Press. PARIS, Oct. 17, 2:04 p. m.—The Havas Agency has received a dispatch from Bordeaux saying that travelers arriving at Las Palmas, in the Canary Islands, from Africa report that there has been heavy fighting between German troops and English and French troops in Kamerun, the German colony of West Equatorial Africa. Travelers referred to in the above dispatch must have reached Las Palmas by steamer. No date of this reported fighting is given. Dispatches from Bordeaux last month said that a French gunboat had taken possession of Coco Beach, in Kamerun, on September 21.

from the none too spacious harbor of Ostend. The fact remains however, that as the fighting gets geographically nearer England, the public heretofore discussing and speculating on a Zeppelin raid, asks what will come next. It is unquestionably true that if Germany is able to engineer submarine attacks from a base further away, Ostend certainly would be of some strategic value. The allied left is holding its ground. At some points it is even moving forward, having occupied Laventie, driving the Germans back toward Lille. One report had it that the Germans had been driven out of Lille, but this has not been confirmed.

The presence of Uhlans has been reported recently within forty miles of Calais, but a glance at the map in the region of the cavalry clashes of the last few days, which for a time extended as far west as Hazebrouk, shows that notwithstanding the German claims of victories, the allies have made steady progress, Laventie being considerably east of the town mentioned.

Wireless Station Not to Be Closed

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—On receiving from the Marconi Company an expression of regret and assurance that greater caution would be exercised in the future, Secretary Daniels today ordered that no further steps be taken toward closing the Marconi wireless station at Honolulu because it sent a message announcing the arrival Thursday of the German cruiser Goeben. Acting Secretary Roosevelt yesterday ordered Rear Admiral Moore, commandant of the naval station at Pearl Harbor, to close the wireless station within 24 hours unless the management gave a satisfactory explanation of what the department regarded as a flagrant violation of neutrality. The message was sent during the temporary absence of the naval censor on duty at the station. In transmitting the company's statement today, Admiral Moore expressed the opinion that there had been no intentional violation of neutrality and advised that its promise of greater caution in the future be accepted.

To Cede District to Italy for Neutrality

By Associated Press. LONDON, Oct. 17, 1:55 p. m.—The Stockholm correspondent of the Daily Telegraph has sent a report from Austria, sources to the effect that Austria-Hungary and Italy are on the verge of concluding an agreement under the terms of which, in exchange for the maintenance of Italian neutrality in the war, Austria-Hungary will cede to Italy the Trentino, a district in the Austrian Tyrol bordering on Italy and containing the city of Trento, and permit a permanent Italian occupation of Atona, the seaport on the Adriatic.

Antwerp Must Support Soldiers; No Indemnity

By Associated Press. LONDON, Oct. 17, 10:50 a. m.—Under date of Friday the Rotterdam correspondent of the Star telegraphs that it had been reported there from Rosendael, Holland, that the German government of Antwerp has decided to forego the huge indemnity spoken of at one time in favor of the demand that the city shall support the 15,000 German soldiers left in Antwerp. The people of Antwerp are allowed to lock their doors at night, the correspondent continues, but they must keep lights burning in halls. G. T. PREPARE FOR GIGANTIC BATTLE Austrian and German Armies Take Positions Along Rivers.

By Associated Press. BERLIN, Oct. 17, via The Hague and London, Oct. 17, 12:50 p.—Preparations are under way for a gigantic battle in the eastern arena of the war, where Austrian and German armies have taken positions along the River Vistula and the River San and are ready for eventualities. The retaking of Przemyśl, as announced from Austrian sources, has permitted the unfolding of the power of the Austrians in the direction of Lemberg and their advance in the Southern Carpathian Mountains is menacing the extreme left wing of the Russians. Desperate fighting is already going on the center of the two armies on the banks of the Vistula. This action has been in a measure delayed, owing to the bad condition of the roads in Southern Poland and the presence of sections of swampy land. This condition has made necessary detours on the part of the Austrian and German forces. The Russian army is east of the Vistula. This fact is regarded in Berlin as making its advance and the general management of the campaign a difficult matter, and at the same time unfavorable. The Russian attack on the Austrians and Germans, unless they succeed in recrossing the Vistula, which would be a difficult undertaking at the present time, will not be an easy matter.

FIGHT FOR BRIDGES

It is understood here that heavy fighting for possession of the bridges at the head of the Vistula is imminent. According to a dispatch from Zurich, Switzerland, to the Cologne Gazette, the French are in a position to recross the Vistula. Since last Tuesday they have been recrossing into Alsace, subjected to heavy mortar fire. The Germans are said to be gaining ground slowly. According to letters from the field, received in Munich, Emperor William a few days ago entered the lines of certain Bavarian and Prussian detachments and visited the troops in the trenches. The Emperor conversed with many of the men and asked them to relate their personal experiences. He gave them words of encouragement, spoke in recognition of their services, asked whether they had heard from the people at home and examined many of the soldiers as to their knowledge of their duties. He was greatly pleased at the prompt and correct answers.

GERMANS BEFORE WARSAW

By Associated Press. BERLIN, Oct. 17, by wireless.—In the eastern arena of the war the situation is described as favorable in reports given out here today. "German troops are before Warsaw. The Russian reports of the capture of German guns are untrue. The Polish population of Warsaw has been maltreated by the Russians. There have been many arrests and executions. The Polish and Jewish inhabitants of this district are now aware of the Russian defeats in East Prussia and South Poland and they are receiving the Germans and Austrians as liberators."

"DEMONSTRATIVE" ADVANCE

By Associated Press. PETROGRAD, by way of London, Oct. 17, 3:10 p. m.—According to Russian information, the Germans are making a "demonstrative" advance near Mlava, northeast of Warsaw, which is intended to fill the gap between the Polish front and the main front, which extends north and south on a line across Russian Poland. The German army, by continuous maneuvers under heavy artillery fire and with day and night outposts fighting, still is endeavoring to feel out possible chances to cross the Vistula. Refugees from that neighborhood state that, until three days ago, all German attempts to cross the river had been repulsed with heavy losses. The Germans found the river too wide for pontoon and numbers perished in attempting to ford it. Poles in that region are said by the refugees to be hampering considerably the German advance by destroying all shelter and provisions, leaving waste lands for the invaders. One hundred Austrian prisoners arrived today at Nizhnia, Siberia.

BATTLE CONTINUES

By Associated Press. VIENNA, via Amsterdam and London, Oct. 17, 12:05 p. m.—It was announced officially in Vienna today that the fighting continued yesterday (Thursday) along the entire battle front from Stry and Zambor—both to the southeast of Przemyśl—to the mouth of the River San. "In Marmaros Sziget, Hungary, the enemy has been pursued by Austrian detachments which have occupied Palau. "In the Valley of the Black Blister the Russians are retreating. Our troops have followed them to Zidonia. "The River Bistrica and the town of Zidonia are in Galicia, close to the Hungarian frontier, and to the northeast of Marmaros Sziget.

RUSSIAN WATERS MINED

By Associated Press. PETROGRAD, Oct. 17.—The Russian government announces that because of the presence of German submarines in the gulf of Finland and the sowing of mines in Russian waters, it has been compelled in turn to have recourse to similar measures. Consequently certain zones of Russian waters, especially those near the gulfs of Riga and Finland and the Littoral archipelago, must be considered dangerous. In order that non-combatants shall not run risks the entrances in the gulfs of Riga and Finland, it is stated, are considered closed from the moment of the publication of this notice.

TEUTONS SEIZE COIN IN POSTOFFICE AND TREASURY OF TOWN

By Associated Press. AMSTERDAM, via London, Oct. 17.—The Sluis, Netherlands, correspondent of the Telegraf says that General Lang has been appointed commander of the German garrison at Ghent, which numbers 4000 men. The soldiers are not quartered in private houses but in public buildings. No alcohol is sold to the soldiers, who are under the strictest orders to prevent looting. Ghent had to produce hostages, who, however, says the dispatch, are permitted to stay in their own homes. The Germans seize the money in the postoffice and in the town treasury. The schools have been reprieved and the Germans hope soon to resume the railway traffic between Brussels and Ghent. Large supplies of provisions and clothes have arrived at Sluis for the Belgian refugees. A majority of the fugitives have no idea at the present time of returning to Belgium. The situation at Bruges is quiet. werp, although the mansion of former Burgomaster Devos has been plundered. Communication between Brussels and Antwerp is being maintained by motor cars only, the railroads still being useless. Foreigners in Antwerp have been forbidden to leave. The city water supply is still cut off. "Bruges, which was occupied by 5000 Germans, has been asked to pay a war tax of half a million dollars. A strong German force which is reconnoitering through North Flanders, has met with no resistance. "Lille has been badly damaged, the whole district between the railway station and the church of St. Maurice being in ruins."

Antwerp Burgomaster Bickers for Favorable Terms

By Associated Press. LONDON, Oct. 17.—"The German efforts to induce refugees to return to Antwerp are meeting with no success because Burgomaster Frank has advised the Antwerp city council to wait twenty days pending the result of his endeavors to arrange favorable terms," says a dispatch from the Amsterdam correspondent of the Daily Chronicle. "The message continues: "Negotiations with this aim will take place in Brussels, to which place the burgomaster has sent a party of refugees, all more than fifty years old, to consult with the German military governor. "Thus far there have been practically no excesses of any kind in Antwerp."

ENGLAND'S ARMY IS NOW 'NUCLEUS'

Times Military Expert Says the Empire Arms Slowly As Russia

By Associated Press. LONDON, Oct. 17.—The Times' military correspondent, replying to the Frankfurter Zeitung's statement that Great Britain was unable to raise more than 100,000 men, says: "We have at the present moment exactly double that number, namely 1,200,000, and the number grows almost faster than we can cope with. This is only the beginning. "Our war, as well as that of America, to begin to raise our armies after war breaks out and to go on raising them until our ultimate ends are achieved. With 1,200,000 men at home, the army in the field and the hundreds of thousands forming in India, Canada, Australia and elsewhere are slowly but surely building up other armies will eventually be built.

BELGIAN TROOPS RETIRE

AMSTERDAM, via London, Oct. 17.—The Telegraf's correspondent at Sluis, Netherlands, ten miles north of Bruges, reports that the Germans have occupied Ostend without resistance. The Belgian troops retired to France. The German forces in Belgium are now in touch with their main army, whose right wing rests at Veurne, the westernmost town in Belgium, near the North Sea and 26 miles west-southwest of Bruges.

CANADIAN TROOPS HAVE LONG MARCH TO CAMP

By Associated Press. SALISBURY PLAIN, England, Oct. 17.—Before noon yesterday the Canadian troops ceased to reach camp here, as they are traveling only in the night time in order not to disturb the railway service. Lord Roberts will review the Canadians on Monday. The horses reaching the camp today after the long sea and train journey were so skittish at being on the ground again that they gave the recruits as much as they could do to handle them. The animals are a strange mixture of the solid farm horses of Eastern Canada and mustangs of the West, but according to a lance corporal of the army service corps, who until a short time ago was a brakeman on a railroad in California, the farm horses caused the most trouble because they understood only the French language and refused to obey orders given in English. As the Canadians have a long march to camp at the end of their railroad journey, it is not expected all the contingent will reach here before Monday. The camp has not been completed.

NEW HAVEN ROAD DEGREE IS FILED

The Provisions for Dissolution Asked by Government Signed by Judge Mayer.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The dissolution asked by the government against the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company was filed in the federal district court here today.

The government's complaint is dismissed by preliminary agreement in so far as it applies to all defendants, individuals and corporation, with the exception of the railroad company itself, the New England Navigation Co., the Boston Railroad Holding Co., the Providence and Danielson Railroad Co. and the Boston and Maine Railroad Co.

The decree provides for three sets of trustees, the first to take over the Boston & Maine holdings of the New Haven; the second to take over the trolley line holdings in Connecticut and the third to take over the trolley line holdings in Rhode Island. These trustees are to act as officers of the court in carrying out the methods provided for the ultimate sale of the holdings.

The decree was filed with the city clerk of the court by Attorney General Gregory, and bears the signature of Federal Judge Mayer.

The three sets of trustees mentioned insofar as the Boston & Maine and the Providence and Danielson Railroad Co., which is controlled by the Boston Railroad Holding Co., are held by the decree to be combinations in restraint of trade and to be attempting monopolization and to be monopolizing trade in violation of the Sherman law.

The decree provides that the trustees shall take over the stock of the Boston Railroad Holding Co., which owns a majority of the stock of the Boston & Maine Railroad, and shall sell the shares of the latter company at auction or by private contract not earlier than July 1, 1915, and shall use their best efforts to complete the sale before July 1, 1917. The trustees are ordered to complete the sale of the Connecticut & Rhode Island holdings before July 1, 1919.

POLICE ASKED TO SEEK FOR MISSING DAUGHTER

Nora Phelan, 14 years of age, went to Idora Park last evening to attend the carnival and failed to return home, according to her father, S. R. Phelan, 450 Seventeenth street, who has asked the assistance of the police in searching for the girl. The girl is described as a pretty blonde, 5 feet 3 inches in height, weighing 95 pounds and wearing a black and white checkered coat and no hat.

Palmetta George, 13 years of age, has disappeared from her home, 1655 Seventeenth street. Mrs. George told the police that her daughter was hurt because of a scolding she had received and had left home.

Ah Sing, 16 years of age, 381 Fifth street, has been missing since October 8, according to a report made by his father, Ah Chung, to the police today.

BOND ISSUE AUTHORIZED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—The State Railroad Commission today authorized the California Western Railroad and Navigation Company to issue $750,000 of first mortgage bonds, the proceeds to be used in refunding other bonds outstanding and discharging indebtedness to the Union Lumber Company. The railroad operates between Ft. Bragg and Willits.

TAFT'S SON IS WEDDED AT CAPITAL

Washington Officialdom and Society Greet Former President and Wife.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The wedding today of Robert A. Taft, son of former President William Howard Taft, and Miss Martha A. Bowers, daughter of the late Lloyd W. Bowers, solicitor general during part of the Taft administration, was of absorbing interest to official and diplomatic society.

The former president and Mrs. Taft had arrived in Washington for the first time since her departure from the White House at the end of Taft's term. "It seems very nice to be here again," she said to inquirers today.

Taft will preside at the convention of the American Bar Association Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, as well as at the banquet to the justices of the supreme court Thursday evening. During the sessions the former president will have as his guest Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, chief justice of the Dominion of Canada, who is to deliver an address at the convention.

Taft stated today that he had no engagement to go to the White House but hoped to call on President Wilson during his stay here. He and President Wilson will meet Tuesday at the bar association convention when the president will deliver the address of welcome. Many dances and other social events have been arranged for the Tafts.

GREETINGS FROM WILSON.

When the former president and Mrs. Taft reached their rooms at a leading hotel they found them filled with flowers and gifts from the nation's officials and personal friends. President Wilson sent American beauty roses and chrysanthemums with greetings to Mrs. Taft. Mr. and Mrs. Taft will be in Washington until next Friday.

MARIN COUNTY SOLIDLY REPUBLICAN, IS REPORT

POLITICAL RHYMES AND LIMES

The Jest and the Rest of It.

ALAS, POOR JOE!
Oh, Molly dear, and did you hear
The news that's going round;
They've greased the skids for Joseph
To run into town.
They've nailed his hide upon the wall,
They've spilled his blood galore,
But Molly was a wise dame,
And she giggled: "Say no more."

Molly winked the other eye,
And shook her little head;
She opened up her tender lips,
And this is what she said:
"They finally licked old Bonaparte,
"Caesar" goes his tin told;
Charles the First was roughly handled
At the hands of Cromwell bold,
But when they trim this Knowland man,
I give you this fair warning:
They'll have to rise 'round 4 o'clock
Some early summer morning."

If the only qualification for the senate was a loud voice "Foghorn" Murphy, the baseball announcer, would have had a togo long ago.

VERY TOUCHING!
A desert act was damp with tears,
For he was far from gay.
"I know," said I, "just why you cry,
"Cause Heney's gone away."

He moaned in accents weak and wane:
"You wound me, sir, I shudder!"
I do not weep because he's gone,
But 'cause he's coming back."

Every time we think of the size of the coming November ballot we can't help but wish the nouthouse authorities tended to their business better.

BUT DOES HE?
I met a scholar old and gray,
Who proudly tossed his head.
"I am the guy who understands
The income tax," he said.

Captain Fredericks had a splendid day in Marin county yesterday. He was greeted by large crowds at Novato, San Rafael, San Anselmo, Ross, Larkspur, Corte Madera, Mill Valley and Sausalito. At each of these places brief addresses were made and the crowds warmly applauded the utterances of the candidate. It is stated that Marin county will be almost solid for Fredericks.

In all his speeches Captain Fredericks alluded to the indictments returned against the Progressives charged with election fraud in much the same manner as his utterances at the Berkeley and Alameda meetings. Today Captain Fredericks is campaigning in San Mateo county, but tomorrow will return to San Francisco, where the Retailers' Protective Association, recognizing Captain Fredericks as a friend of industry and business, has invited him to open their great annual industrial fair which opens this evening in the coliseum.

This association has always maintained an impartial attitude on all political questions, but this year it has announced its support of Fredericks because, to quote Frank Eittinger, manager of the exhibit: "The merchants who are members of this organization are convinced that their success and prosperity is dependent upon the election of a Republican governor."

Captain Fredericks will be introduced by President P. F. Rathlen, leader among the German societies of San Francisco, at 9 o'clock. The association has distributed 100,000 tickets for the opening night and it is expected a record breaking crowd will be in attendance.

Plans for the great rally to be addressed by Captain Fredericks and Hon. Joseph R. Knowland, at the auditorium, Page and Fillmore streets, next Wednesday night, have been completed and it is expected this will be the greatest meeting of the campaign.

Mrs. Mary O'Kelly, who is interested in labor legislation and has been active in its cause, has resigned from the John-Donahoe club of San Francisco. Mrs. O'Kelly is now reading a report on labor legislation covering periods of legislative activity in 1913 in which she learned that measures in the interest of labor were pocketed by Johnson or failed of passage by his legislature, that she cannot conscientiously support him.

Deeds to a right of way and franchise obtained by the Oakland and Bay Shore Railway in June, 1911, bearing date of March 1, 1912, were filed today with County Recorder Bacon, showing that on that date a transfer of the holdings was made to the Oakland & Antioch Railway. The franchise covered the construction of an electric railroad along Shafter avenue and was granted to the Oakland & Bay Shore Railway June 28, 1911. The deeds show that the grantee was unable to construct the road and that financial assistance was rendered by the Oakland & Antioch, now the Oakland, Antioch & Eastern Railway, to the extent that the road was completed by the latter corporation. Samuel Naphtali was president and A. J. Krutemeyer, secretary of the Oakland & Bay Shore Railway. The deeds were recorded today upon request of the Anglo California Trust Company. The significance of their being placed on record at this time is a conjecture.

MUTINEER VISITS GUAYMAS.
ON BOARD U. S. S. WEST VIRGINIA, Santa Rosalia, Mex., Oct. 16, by wireless to San Diego, Oct. 17.—The mutinous Yaqui who murdered Major Aguayo, the military commander of Santa Rosalia, on October 6, and seized the Mexican steamer Korrigan III, with intent to raid and capture Lower California for General Francisco I. Madero, arrived today for Guaymas, after leaving a force of 21,000 pesos on the Boico Company (French), which controls important copper mining concessions near Santa Rosalia.

Admiral Howard, commanding the Pacific fleet, was called for by the Yaqui fleet, and will sail for Guaymas on the West Virginia tonight. He came here to investigate conditions, when he heard of the mutiny, and found the town greatly relieved to be rid of his garrison.

When Major Aguayo was killed his body was kicked rolling down the street, and the fingers were hacked from his hands, the sooner to obtain the rings he wore.

ZAPATA TO CONFEE.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Instead of telegraphing General Zapata to send more delegates to the national convention at Aguascalientes, Mexico, the assembly has approved a committee headed by General Felipe Angeles and some of the Zapata delegates who had already arrived to confer with the southern chief in person. This information was reported to the state department today from its agent at Aguascalientes. The committee is expected to meet Zapata in Cuernavaca. Administration officials regarded the move as evidence of the firm purpose of the convention to secure co-operation of all factions for the restoration of peace.

AGUILAR AGREES.
VERA CRUZ, Oct. 17.—John R. Sullivan, President Wilson's personal representative in Mexico City, reported this morning for Mexico City, reported to the state department at Washington that General Aguilar had promised to grant the demands of the United States in connection with the evacuation of Vera Cruz.

Beyond the American lines last night and conferred with the general until a late hour regarding the promised evacuation by the United States and President Wilson's desires. Recently General Aguilar issued a proclamation making certain guarantees at San Antonio, Tlaxcala, and promised to issue another in which he will be more specific. The proclamation will give assurance that no one who has been employed by the Americans shall be prosecuted for that, although it is an offense for which the law provides severe punishment.

It was suggested that the acts of General Aguilar after all were subject to the decision of his superiors in the Mexican capital. Sullivan in reply said that the responsibility was wholly Aguilar's. The president's representative said that he believed that the general's promise to be made to the demands made would satisfy Wilson.

START FIGHT FOR AMENDMENT NO. 19

Big Mass Meeting at Commerce Chamber Seeks the Integrity of Oakland.

"Carry Amendment No. 19, Defeat Amendment No. 21."

This was the slogan sounded yesterday when business and professional men and prominent citizens gathered in a big mass meeting at the Oakland Chamber of Commerce to launch Oakland's fight for the "Oakland Amendment" known as Amendment No. 19, that will remove all possible danger of a campaign to annex any portion of this side of the bay to San Francisco.

The chamber auditorium was crowded. W. E. Gibson, appointed chairman of the annexation campaign committee some time ago, presided at yesterday's session.

"This is a fight to protect Oakland's integrity," declared W. E. Gibson in opening the meeting. "The time that remains is short, and the situation that confronts us at the present time is a complicated one. We put the Oakland amendment on the ballot after some quick work. We had Los Angeles and San Francisco aligned with us."

"The unfortunate speech of the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and the following events, which most of us are familiar, somewhat complicated this. In fact, we have the work to do all over again. Los Angeles began to doubt our good faith and San Francisco interests were quick to take advantage of this. The Chamber of Commerce has again placed itself on record—and it is now up to us to act."

COMMITTEE APPOINTED.
A campaign committee, which will, Monday, begin active work for the Oakland amendment, was appointed at the close of yesterday's meeting and headquarters established in the rooms of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce. Edward J. Folsom, secretary, to be appointed at that time by the anti-annexation committee, will be in charge. Work will from then on be conducted vigorously until November 3, when the amendment will come before the voters for a vote.

The "Oakland Amendment" is the one agreed upon following Oakland's protest against the "San Francisco Amendment" by Oakland, San Francisco and Los Angeles. It will permit the expansion of the Peninsula down the peninsula, the avowed purpose of the San Francisco commercial organizations and city officials, and will also permit such extensions as Los Angeles desires, while preventing any issue rising as to San Francisco attempting to take any foothold on this side of the bay.

CAPWELL MAKES PLEA.
H. C. Capwell made a vigorous plea for immediate work.

"We mustn't go to sleep on the job," he declared, "and we must arrange for a rousing campaign at once. We should have the amendment on the ballot. The time is short and the work is big, and the issue one of the most important ever to confront the people of the east bay region."

B. A. Brierley declared that the work should have been started some time ago, but that at the present time only issue before the people was that of immediate and vigorous action.

Following the speeches the campaign committee was appointed by the following: A. S. Larverson, J. H. Clay, O. E. Hotte and W. E. Gibson, who was asked to assume chairmanship of the campaign body.

The committee will hold its first session Monday, at which time a secretary will be appointed and the work formally launched. The headquarters will remain open and daily meetings of the committee will be held. Plans will be made for another great mass meeting, and the committee will be placed before the east bay region.

George Mason, secretary of the progress and prosperity committee of the Chamber of Commerce, today offered a $10,000 bond insurance policy to the committee, to the anti-annexation campaign committee, pledging the support of the organization for the Oakland Amendment, known on the ballot as Amendment 19.

World Wheat Crop Is Short, Report Shows

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The world wheat crop this year probably will be less than in 1913 and 1912, although the United States has had a record-breaking wheat harvest. The statistics announced today by the Department of Agriculture indicate the crops of all nations aggregate approximately 3,741,015,000 bushels, against 4,125,310,000 bushels in 1913 and 3,791,875,000 bushels in 1912.

"In Europe agricultural conditions in most sections have been unfavorable for only moderate yields," the department announced. "It is practically certain that the present shortage of this season's European yield will be magnified by the complete returns. Harvests were pretty well over before, or soon after, harvest began, and the grain is believed to have been saved in generally good condition, except in territory actually occupied by the contending armies."

MAY REPORT MEXICANS.
SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 17.—Antonio Hernandez and Ramon Hernandez, former officers in the Mexican federal army, have been charged with violations of the immigration laws of the United States, and their deportation asked in warrants sworn to here by immigration authorities. Hernandez, as commander of the Mexican troops which captured Sabin during the recent revolution, caused the imprisonment of John R. Sullivan, United States consul, and is reported to have been an anarchist. Hernandez is alleged to have entered the United States under an assumed name. He was in command of the Mexican army at Tampico when a squad of American marines was arrested in that city last April. Both men are in jail.

CARRANZA HONORED.
WICHITA, Kas., Oct. 17.—General Venustiano Carranza, president of Mexico, was the executive power of Mexico was made a member of the board of governors of the International Dry Farming Congress in session here yesterday. He was one of two foreigners appointed to the board, the other being W. R. Mott of Canada.

The contrasted varied life which abounds in the waters off the coast of the United States has been the explanation of the success of the expedition.

Hays of the Bureau of Fisheries.

In these studies the expeditions parties have worked in 22 different "sections," each section being a square of 100 miles, and the first section is situated about Cedros Island, 100 miles south of San Diego, off the coast of Lower California, to Puget Sound, the last section being off the coast of Alaska.

At different times, specimens and data have been recorded, and 340 biological hauls have been made, 320 of these

MOVEMENTS OF CREATURES.

All subjects studied have been the nucleus of the movements of the creatures, the factors governing the vertical distribution of sea plants and sea animals, the relation between the shell size and leaf size in various species of plants, and the question of possible uses for kelp and other sea plants.

The subject has been treated by the Scripps Institution of Oceanography, San Diego, California, under the direction of Dr. F. B. Sumner to whom is dedicated the present paper. "Can exploration be inherited?" "Can exploration be inherited as an acquired characteristic?" These are some of the questions which are being asked. The answer is sometimes yes, sometimes no. Therefore it was determined to use some group of mammals for the investigation because of their rapidity of multiplication.

Advantage was taken of the large and excellently prepared collection of field mice in the California Museum of ornithology and mammalogy at Berkeley. Some of these same field mice are being raised and studied, one sub-species being from Berkeley and another from a typical desert area. The results of these investigations are of value as throwing light on the problems which confront breeders of plants and of animals.

The Scripps Institution was founded and is in chief part maintained by the generosity of Miss Ellen B. Scripps.

Raschen, who left this city for the European continent six months ago, has returned and is grateful that home is in this beautiful, peaceful land after the scenes in the war ridden country. Mrs. Raschen, who has two nephews and five cousins in the war, says: "No one here knows how ter-

While the war is, Women sat at home awaiting news from their husbands or sons. With the coming of the war, the death list which is published each week, there are many friends, and there are despairing and grief stricken women all over the land.

Mrs. Raschew was with relatives in England when the war broke out and she could hardly believe that her husband was the "one that overspread the land and darkened each home as every family knew that they must give up their share of the strong arms and hearts. Speaking to one wounded soldier Mrs. Raschew asked, "You poor man I suppose you will be home soon, is it not so?" On the contrary, the man said, "I am only waiting for the day to come when I

WONDERFUL ENTHUSIASM.

"The enthusiasm is something wonderful," continued Mrs. Raschen, who told of the anxious hours that followed the arrival from a nephew who was in one of the transports. He had been heard from for three weeks and whose death was a foregone conclusion. He was one of the prisoners, and one hundred thousand Russian men seen by the Alamedun, who left Bremen for a month ago. She was to have sailed on the 22d, but was delayed on August 23, but was not allowed to leave that way and later took the train to Bremerhaven, where she learned that the train was needed for the transportation of more soldiers to the front. Passage was taken on the Rydam on the 24th, and she was surprised to find first class fare was recognized with first class food but the sleeping accommodation was not so good. The passage room was down in the hold of the vessel, however, was lighted and ventilated from the best skylight, that was kept open. The food was good and she was surprised took ten days. En route the ship was overhauled by both a French and English vessel. After the ship's captain showed his papers, the English vessel passed on. The first of these was the French vessel and shortly after as the English vessel was passing, the ship was thrown upon the ship for ten days and an hour later the English war ships papers. They were asked to pass on after a short delay and on returning to the country Mrs. Raschen visited Washington and New York and made her homeward journey by the southern route through Florida, Oregon and Los Angeles, arriving yesterday, since her friends have been congratulating her upon her return. It was the advice of the American consul in Belgium that all Americans leave as soon as possible, as there was no telling how long might become involved.

Before leaving Belgium, Mrs. Raschen had an interesting session with

PANAMA CANAL OVER ESTIMATE

Colonel Goethals Reports on Work; Figures Are Large.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Despite the general check on business in consequence of the European war and the interference by war vessels with the shipping of belligerent nations, traffic through the Panama Canal in the first month and a half of its commercial service exceeded the expectations of Colonel Goethals. Up to October 7, one hundred vessels had passed through the canal since its opening and the traffic was increasing rapidly though this has unfortunately been checked temporarily by the new slide in Culebra Cut.

The picturesque fleet which passed through the canal recently was composed of four Norwegian steam whaling vessels, which had been operating in Magdalena bay on the west Mexican coast. The whalers had had a good season, netting 20,000 barrels of oil valued at $320,000 after eight months' work. By using the canal the fleet expected to arrive home in Norway about four months earlier than by the longer route around South America, and to save between $25,000 and $30,000 in actual expenses of travel after paying canal tolls to the amount of $1012.

PRESIDENT RE-ELECTED BY FARMERS' CONGRESS

FORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 17.—N. L. Ames of Oregon, Wis., was re-elected president, and Omaha, Neb., was selected as the next place of meeting by the Farmers' National Congress at its final session here last night.

A resolution urging congress to remain in session "until it has enacted laws for financing surplus cotton and providing protection for the producers against ruinous prices next year" was adopted by the Congress last night.

D. K. Unsicker of Wright, Iowa, was elected treasurer, and all other officers were re-elected.

The legislative program adopted favors extension of the parcel post system, the enactment of more uniform tenant laws, federal control of telephone and telegraph lines and the establishment by the government of a marketing bureau.

BARBER IS CONVICTED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Vincent Sollari, a North Beach barber who shot and killed Frank Dorso April 19 of this year, was found guilty of manslaughter by a jury in Superior Judge Cabanis' court yesterday afternoon.

Sollari alleged that after alienating the affections of Mrs. Sollari, Dorso attempted to make love to the 13-year-old daughter of the Sollari household. Sollari's wife accompanied him in court.

AEOLIAN YACHT CLUB PLANS FINE CLOSING

The Aeolian Yacht Club will close the racing season of 1914 on Sunday, October 25, at the clubhouse in San Leandro bay. Preparations are under way to hold the best closings the club has ever had. The committee in charge has arranged a program entirely different from previous years. There will be no junks Saturday night, but the whole affair will take place Sunday.

The Aeolians are doing everything in their power to boost Alameda water facilities and encourage more people to take to water sports. They have purchased five handsome silver trophies, which will be given to winners in the different motor and sail-boat races, and any one owning a motor boat or small sail boat in or around Alameda who would like to compete in the races their entries will be gladly received by the club. All the races will be handicapped affairs and all boats will have an equal chance.

After the races Commodore Carl Strom, the famous clam chowder chef, will serve a special, and Captain Roebbe, the coffee expert, will brew some of his world-renowned special, and every one will have plenty to eat and plenty to see, and the day should be one, long to be remembered by the amateur sailors and their guests.

MASONS NAME NEW OFFICERS FOR TERM

Grand Lodge Will Meet in San Francisco Next Year, Is Voted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—The Masonic Grand Lodge yesterday elected and installed officers, closing its session with the presentation of a beautiful silver service to Judge John Douglas Murphy, the retiring grand master. Judge Benjamin F. Blodson of the United States Federal court of the Southern California district, the newly-elected grand master, was the recipient of a unique gift, a gift made from the tail of a mastedon skin, found in the asphalt beds near Los Angeles (Geologists say this animal lived some 200,000 years ago and weighed about 3000 pounds). San Francisco was designated as the meeting place for the 1915 annual session, to be held next October.

STOCKTON EMPLOYERS REJECT ARBITRATION

STOCKTON, Oct. 17.—J. T. Woods, president of the San Joaquin Building Trades Council, announced yesterday that he had been notified by H. C. Brokaw on behalf of the Merchants' Manufacturing and Employers' Association that the employers would not consider the union's proposal to arbitrate all differences in the Stockton labor dispute and that all negotiations were off between the union and the employers.

Brokaw gave out a statement charging the union leaders with a breach of faith in giving the newspaper reports of their arbitration proposal. Woods declares that the matter of secrecy was never even mentioned and no obligation was laid on the peace conference committee members to refrain from stating facts to the public.

SEEK BANK DISSOLUTION.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—A petition asking the dissolution of the California Savings and Loan Society was filed in the Superior Court yesterday by Attorney William S. Downing, a director. The bank was incorporated in August, 1913, by the late David Farquharson. He remained its president up to the time of his death. The institution had a capital stock of $1,000,000, and when it went into voluntary liquidation in 1914 had about $1,000,000 in deposits. Since then the depositors have been paid in full, with a bonus, and the stockholders have received many times over the amount of their original investment. Attorney Downing said yesterday that the bank is the first in the history of the state to go into voluntary liquidation and pay every dollar of its obligations.

"PRINCE" ARRIVES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—James L. Lonefeather, otherwise known as "Rattlesnake Jim," sometime sergeant-major in the French army and who boasts the title of Prince Amelid of the Mo and, which he says was given him by King Fird of Arabia because he is the world's brimstone bartended "hiker," reached San Francisco yesterday in the seventh year of such "hike." Lonefeather has other claims to distinction besides those enumerated above, however. He is a Swiss Indian, born in Switzerland of a Swiss mother and a Sioux Indian father from Bismarck, N. D. Lonefeather thinks he is a unique combination of nationalities extant.

last, after months of labor and responsibility, the "Baby Hospital" is established and is an assured success. Seventeen babies are now being cared for and the beautiful experiment is fairly begun. And in order to aid the work the Baby Hospital will have a "Halloween Fair," to be given at the Pacific building, Sixteenth and Jefferson streets, October 29, 30 and 31.

Great support is given to the hospital by the branches, a name chosen for the different groups who meet regularly for the purpose of making clothes to be used by the babies, and also to prepare articles to be sold at the annual fair. The branches were patterned after similar groups connected with the General Hospital in Rochester, which are known as "twigs," and have been instrumental in raising large sums for the parent organization. The names of some of the branches and their leaders are as follows:

Olive Branch, Mrs. W. A. Shockley; Hill Branch, Mrs. William Ede; Oak Branch, Mrs. Guy L. Bailey; Holly Branch, Mrs. Bruce Cornwall; Elm Branch, Mrs. L. Scott; Manzanita Branch, Mrs. W. L. Seabury; Blooming Branch, Miss Ethel Wrampelmeier; Laurel Branch, Mrs. Bernard Ransome; The Pine Needles, Mrs. C. A. Smith; Topmost Branch, Mrs. Samuel B. Welch; Birch Branch, Miss Marie Friedrichs.

The branches of the Baby Hospital are busily engaged in getting ready, and there will be many pleasant features, one of which will be the formal opening of the fair with a charity ball, which the managers intend to make an annual affair. The management does not wish to make constant appeals to the public by giving small entertainments and so it has planned an annual fair at Halloween, hoping that the proceeds and regular subscriptions will be sufficient to meet the year's budget.

The various branches have been working for months to make articles to be sold at the fair.

Among the booths are the following:

BOUDOIR ARTICLES.
Mrs. William Ede, Mrs. Herbert Brown, Mrs. Marie Moffitt, Mrs. Deane Seale, Mrs. Charles Parker, Mrs. Charles Wingate, Mrs. E. Hume, Mrs. Charles Townsend, Mrs. Taylor Bell, Mrs. Wigginton, Mrs. Burr Eastwood, Mrs. Genevieve Fore, Miss Alice Knowles, Mrs. Allen Chickering, Mrs. Clifton Walker, Mrs. John Brittain.

Mrs. Edward W. Enga, Mrs. James de Fremery, Mrs. H. Friedrichs, Mrs. the "Baby Hospital" is Bernard Ransome, Miss Ethel Valentine, Miss Mary Van Orden, Mrs. Arthur Dole King.

On the auxiliary board are the following well-known young matrons:

Mrs. Frank L. Adams, Mrs. Arthur Dole King, Mrs. Guy Edey, Mrs. Harry East, Mrs. Miss Elsie Benedict, Mrs. Harry E. Moffitt, Mrs. Kate Bennett, Mrs. Ethel Moore, Mrs. Edwin Blake, Mrs. Frank E. Mott, Mrs. Almeda Cochrane, Mrs. Edward Olney, Mrs. William Cavell, Mrs. Mark Regis, Mrs. Otto N. Dabbin, Mrs. Florence Selby, Mrs. William Ede, Mrs. Sam Bell Wakefield, Mrs. Herbert Hamilton, Mrs. Hugh M. Webster, Mrs. E. V. Hathaway, Mrs. Charles Wingate, Mrs. Lida Garber, Mrs. Florence Wilson, Mrs. South Association, Mrs. Duncie Van Sant, Mrs. May Jackson, Mrs. Ben Sels, Mrs. William Knowles.

Meetings are being held almost daily and the Halloween Fair brings every promise of success.

COTTON TO BE CROWNED AS KING BY FABIOLA

"Cotton is king!" said proudly the old Southern planter. And for years one's feet have marked time to the jolly tune of "Way Down South in Dixie" to the land of cotton.

Put King Cotton has had a hard time, and that "Hard Times Come Again No More" may be truthfully thing which is possible to be made of cotton will be on display. This is the first time such an exhibition has been attempted on the coast. Pittsburgh, Boston and more recently Washington, D. C., are the trio of eastern cities that have made events of the cotton show. Mrs. Josephus Daniels and Miss Genevieve Clark had charge of the Washington show, which was viewed by more than 200,000 people.

Appropos of the scheme, in the Eastern society notes one reads:

"Society women are not only arranging a novel fashion fete to encourage individuality of design in costumes made in this country, but they are planning to wear more cotton goods, and so revive the trade in that commodity. In fact, cotton opera and dinner gowns are to be largely worn. Many other novel entertainments are being organized, the proceeds of which are to be devoted to the women and children in the belligerent countries and the wounded soldiers. New York society is responding nobly to the call.

"The fashion fete is set for three days, beginning Wednesday, November in Washington last week, are to be shown at the fete and sold afterward for the Red Cross. Mrs. Vincent Astor, Mrs. August Belmont, Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish and Mrs. Vanderbilt are among the patronesses."

MRS. CHESTER DURYEA WRITES OF WAR TIMES.

It is quite wonderful the work that the women of the smart set are doing now that the exigencies of a big war confront them. Among the women abroad is Mrs. Chester Duryea, who was at beautiful Dinard, one of the most fashionable places in all of Europe, when the war began. Mrs. Duryea, who is one of the wealthiest women of the New York smart set, writes from Dinard:

"Mrs. Van Rensselaer of Boston, who came from Paris on a long detour, slept two nights on benches of public parks en route.

"We congratulate ourselves that we remained here, for at least here we are of use to the unfortunate. Simplicity is the word, and did any one give a dinner party or appear in a gay toilet they might meet the fate of the spy. Class distinctions are for-

MISS DOROTHY BAUM, WHO IS A FAVORITE IN THE PIEDMONT SET.

There are "cotton shows" all over the country.

Oakland must, of course, be in the heart of things, so we are to have a cotton show" along the plans outlined by Genevieve Clark, the daughter of Champ Clark, and the other ladies of the cabinet in Washington. It will be for Fabiola hospital, among the most beloved of all our charities.

Mrs. Remi Chabot, Mrs. Quincy A. Chase and Mrs. Wallace Everson are the members of the executive board, in charge of the big benefit, which will open for a week beginning November 2. The place as yet has not been definitely decided upon. The show will probably close with an elaborate ball, at which the women will wear the cotton gowns. Everything from the smallest to the largest gotten. Great ladies sweep and scrub hospital floors with proud humility, wash and mend these torn bodies. Instead of bridge, shirts, bandages and sheets are made. No one has any money, as banks refuse to disgorge, and rents, servants and bills are unpaid, and every one owes every one else quite cheerfully.

"While having our frugal tea (no more buttered scones and cakes) a friend is apt to rush in crying: 'Quick! Do give me four pillows, or 'Have you an old petticoat or some cotton wool?' We denude ourselves gladly, and only regret that useless ball gowns cumber our trunks.

"We are all becoming expert dairymaids and go in turn to the outlying farms to make butter where help is scarce. It is the fashion to tuck up skirts, shed footgear and clamber along the rocks for scrap, which make a delicate soup. The mayor has fixed prices for garden produce and the 'you on the franc,' which has always been the legitimate thievery of Dinard cooks, is no more. Our small sons are enrolled as elevator and errand boys for the hospitals."

And now bright, picturesque Dinard is in the center of the war zone, and fear and sadness reign where was a light-hearted gaiety full of charm.

MRS. HOOVER IS ANGEL OF MERCY IN LONDON.

Among the Americans who rendered great service in the early troublous days of the war were Mr. and Mrs. Hoover. Mrs. Hoover is a Californian, a very brilliant woman, and her book on "Mining" was a most unusual one and is regarded as a standard of information. The Hoovers are very fond of California, but they have also a very artistic home in the suburbs of London. They spend much time on this coast, as Mrs. Hoover wishes her sons to be educated at Stanford.

The Hoovers were in London at the beginning of the war and they were members of the now famous relief committee of twenty-six—the only woman on the committee being Mrs. Hoover.

Nearly 3000 Americans called every day upon this committee and Mrs. Hoover published a paper in order that all Americans could readily obtain necessary information.

Mrs. Hoover is a great friend of Miss Ethel Moore and many well-known people here have met her at Miss Moore's home.

HERE'S AN OLD, FAMILIAR FRIEND.

"Come and see me, Mary Anne. This afternoon at three; Come as early as you can, And stay till after tea!"

That old-time refrain of one's childhood looked up from a card not long ago and needless to say every one who received it smiled, and not a regret was sent. And the hostess who sent the card had to her credit one of the most delightfully informal teas of the season. Teas have been unusually successful this year, for one reason that they have been given usually for some well-known guest. On Thursday Miss Marie Whiting of Berkeley gave a tea in honor of Frances Ramsey, whose wedding to Lieutenant Underwood will take place in a few days. The bride-elect is a very attractive girl and she was considered one of the most graceful of the dancers at the dansants of last winter. Among the interesting girls who assisted Miss Whiting in receiving were:

Miss Marguerite Black will entertain next Wednesday at the Oakland in honor of Mrs. Lyman Sargeant (Evelyn Outram) and in honor of two well-known brides-elect, Miss Helen Dabney and Miss Gertrude Adams.

Miss Adams is to be married next month to Henry Eugene Jackson, and the wedding of Thomas Hogan Jr. and Miss Dabney will take place next February.

A few of the younger girls gathered at a very informal tea yesterday, the young hostess of the hour being Miss Lorna Williamson, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Williamson. Miss Williamson entertained in honor of her friend, Miss Juanita Ghrardell, and among the school girl friends of the hostess at the informal gathering were the Misses Elva Ghrardell, Adeline Howard Harriet Walsh, Amy Long, Sally Long, Ann Elizabeth Crowder, Mignon Wilson, Anne Barbour and Amy Requa.

DR. AND MRS. E. CHIPMAN HOSTS AT PERFECT DINNER.

Among the notable dinners of the season was one given at Rens by Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Chipman, who entertained in honor of Miss Erna St. Goar and John Hubert Mee, whose engagement was recently announced.

The dinner was very perfectly planned, the centerpiece was a marble bowl filled with Enchantress carnations and asparagus ferns. Around the table were picturesque bowknobs of tulip and asparagus ferns. The favors were lively baskets of flowers tied with tulle. Mrs. Chipman is a sister of George Greenwood of this city.

DEL MONTE IS GAY FOR GOLF TOURNEY.

Del Monte has been very gay this week and the golf links have presented colorful studies. Many of the girls have made most attractive pictures in field jackets in dainty colors over white gowns, and this year the stockings must match the jackets. The latter are in quiet tones of lavender, amethyst or pale gray, or else for the brunettes they are in vivid yellows or reds. But they make of the links a panorama of kaleidoscopic effects wonderfully picturesque.

There was tropical weather at Del Monte, and it was difficult for the girls in the tournament to be at their best. But under the circumstances, good scores were the order of the

WHITE GIRL FIGHTS LAW WEDS JAPANESE LOVER

Hero of Thrilling International Romance Ready to Circle Globe for Sweetheart

MISS HAZEL BAKER, WHO IS FIGHTING FOR HER JAPANESE LOVER.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 17.—Ready to fight the law for love of her Japanese sweetheart, and to circle the globe if need be to find a spot where she can become his wife, Hazel Baker, heroine of one of the most thrilling international romances in California history, told for the first time her own story of her strange adventures since she first met A. S. Goto, the young Japanese who won her from her own race.

While she talked the girl packed a suitcase and inspected the tickets that will carry her to the State of Washington, where she and Goto will make another attempt to become man and wife.

The couple were arrested last Sunday night. Police Judge Chambers dismissed the charges against them when they showed a certificate of "marriage," performed on the high seas off San Diego by Captain W. R. King of that city.

There is no race or difference in race or love," said Miss Baker today, and her soft brown eyes shone with a golden light. "We will be married, no matter what we have to do or where we have to go. Nothing can keep us apart from each other. We want to be married near California, because all of my husband's family and friends are here. You see, his father is the biggest maker of dollhouse wars in Japan, and he is to make a large exhibit at the San Francisco fair in 1915, and we are to have charge of it."

There has been a terrible shock to me to find that we are not legally married, for surely if two people were ever married by love and happiness we were. And, after all, where lies the difference between marrying a Frenchman, an Australian and a Japanese? Surely the customs of those countries are as different from ours as those of the Japanese. Of course, it might be another matter if a woman married a Japanese and went to live in Japan as his wife. But if she is to live in America I am sure no woman could find a more courteous, honorable and sympathetic husband."

HIS ATTENTION WON.
She is a slender, finely made, delicate-looking thing—this girl who set aside all the conventions of centuries, the beliefs of civilization, for love of a dark-eyed youth from the land of cherry blossoms.

She does not seem afraid of the words of Kipling, "For East is East, and West is West, and Never the Twain Shall Meet."

"When I first met Goto, I think it was the novelty of his attentions that appealed to me," she explained. "They were so different from the sordid American views. Then I found that I loved him, that I wanted to be his wife."

"So, after a delicious courtship, we went to San Diego, and we were married. We thought, Ah, I shall never forget that trip in the boat to the 'promised land' called the high seas. It was bitterly cold, but I was warmed by inner fires of happiness. We were happy together for four months—happy and contented. Then came the shock of that horrible night in jail and the worse shock of the knowledge that though in our own eyes we were wedded, in the eyes of the law we were not. I could not believe it at first; I could not."

"We will be married, and I am not afraid. Why should I be? They say that there are too many traditions between the races that cannot be overcome, but I know that I shall understand him, because I love him, and he will understand me, because he loves me. Our love will level all differences."

"And today we start on our journey after happiness—I know we shall find it—and we will be married."

She put her white ringless hand into the brown palm of her Japanese sweetheart, and there were faith and trust and hope in her eyes as she smiled at him.

LAW WORRIES JAPANESE.
A new and curious light was shed last night on the "high seas" wedding of Goto and Miss Baker, when Captain King of San Diego, who was said by the couple to have performed the ceremony, declared unequivocally that he had not done so.

Captain King asserted last night in San Diego that he was present as a witness only when Goto and Miss Baker were "married" on the high seas off Point Loma June 10 last.

GIRL JOURNEYS TO AID OF LOVER; BROTHER AIDS

Relative, in Fast Train, Carries Money for Woman to Properly Make Trip

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Frederick Henkel, whose sister Marie fled from her home here yesterday with borrowed money to be at the bedside of her wounded lover in Austria, caught a fast freight train in pursuit yesterday.

"Are you going to bring her back?" he was asked.

"No, I'm going to help her," he replied.

Miss Henkel, aged 22 years, met Count Wilhelm Feodor Hinz von Zagreb while touring Europe last summer. A few days ago she received a letter full of endearments and mentioning that the writer had been seriously wounded in a rush with a regiment of Cossacks.

"Send me something to remind me of you," the young count, who is an Austrian officer, concluded his letter.

Miss Henkel determined to appear in person as a reply, but her parents would not supply the funds. Yesterday she pawned some trinkets her girl friends had contributed and obtained enough money for passage to New York, a steamer ticket to Genoa, $25 for passage from Genoa to Trieste and $5 for meals and incidentals.

Her friends, knowing that $5 would not go far on a dining car, provided her with a supply of sandwiches, pickles, minced ham and other edibles. She boarded a train for New York last night.

Brother Frederick carries with him plenty of money so that his sister will be able to travel first class.

state, in announcing the fact today, added that King Albert was showing great stoicism and that Queen Elizabeth was sharing his pain and giving an example of dignity and courage worthy of classic times.

FRANCE NOT READY FOR WAR, SHE SAYS

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Mrs. Philip Lyville, who remained in Paris until her hotel closed its doors, returned yesterday on the Mauretania. She expressed her opinion that France was not prepared for war.

"It has broken my heart," she said. "Why, the Germans had ammunition buried throughout the hostile belt, and German spies were swarming all over the country. When I reached London I found that the English were just beginning to realize the seriousness of the situation."

Other passengers were Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Fish, John McCormack, the Irish tenor, and Elsie Janis, the actress.

ACTRESS IS JAILED AFTER LAWSUIT

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Edith St. Clair, an actress, whose suit in 1912 against Klaw & Erlanger, theatrical managers, for breach of contract resulted in a verdict in her favor for $22,500 damages, was arrested last night on charges of perjury, and last night was a prisoner in the Tombs. The arrest followed the finding of two indictments against her today by the grand jury in the court of general sessions.

LAW STOPS WOMAN IN RACE WITH DEATH

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Mrs. Grace Arnold is likely to lose her race, with death a third of the way around the world, for she is indefinitely detained at Angel Island by immigration officials, on the ground that she is an undesirable alien. The woman pleaded against detention, tearfully declaring that she was speeding her flight in aid of a sister in Peoria, Ill. But the officials were obdurate, and the chances are that Mrs. Arnold will, when released from the island, be compelled to return to the Orient, and continue her interrupted journey to London by another route.

Mrs. Arnold is 27 years old. She says she is the divorced wife of a wealthy Oriental merchant and a British subject. She arrived here Thursday on the Pacific Mail liner Magnolia with a ticket for London, where, she says, she has considerable property. When questioned by Captain F. H. Ainsworth of the immigration office, Mrs. Arnold said she intended to stop at Peoria to see a dying sister. Advice had been received from Shanghai, however, which caused her detention here.

NOTED STAGE BEAUTY IS DEAD IN EAST

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Miss Vernora Jarboe, noted on the stage for her beauty and symmetry of figure, and in recent years as a teacher of physical culture and a judge at fashionable dog shows in and near New York, died at 6 o'clock yesterday morning at her home, Verme farm, Rockland county.

She suffered from chronic illness, and for the last three months knew that she was doomed. A week or ten days ago she sent for her intimate friends and requested them to come and bid her a fond farewell.

WOMEN TO FORM NEW NATIONAL ORGANIZATION

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 17.—Delegates representing seventeen national organizations of women decided yesterday on the permanent organization of a national central body to be known as the Council of National Organizations of Women. The organization will be completed at Washington in November of next year. It will take the place of the National Council of Women of the United States and will include more organizations than the present council. Mrs. Percy V. Pennington of Austin, Tex., president of the National Federation of Women's Clubs and temporary president of the Council of National Organizations, and other officers, will serve until the Washington meeting. Among the delegates were women of prominence in club life and civic associations.

MRS. ELECIA KENNEDY IS OLDEST WOMAN VOTER

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—The claim made by friends of Mrs. Lydia A. Sharp, less of Whittier, who was 104 years old August 22 last, that she is the oldest woman voter in the United States, is discounted by nearly seven months by Mrs. Electa Kennedy of Healdsburg, who was 104 years old January 23 last.

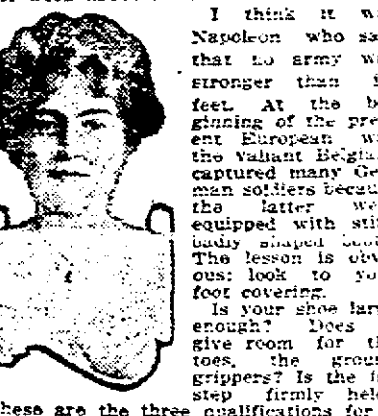

Mrs. Kennedy keeps house for her son, who is 75 years old, and is unusually vigorous for one of her age. She takes great interest in current events and is always ready to take an auto ride and never fails to cast her vote at local and general elections. She is the oldest member of the Order of the Eastern Star and Amaranth, in both of which she was initiated after passing her 100th birthday.

MISSING GIRL FOUND; POSED UNDER ALIAS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—It was discovered yesterday that the missing 15-year-old Edna Sullivan and "Irene Brown," who last Tuesday night sought food and lodging at the city prison, were the same girl. She was recognized at the Detention Home by another girl and later identified by her mother, Mrs. Anna Tierman of 695 Polson street. The girl refused to explain her actions. She is totally blind in one eye and will be kept at the Detention Home for treatment, in the hope that her sight might be restored.

"Foot Massage Will Erase Forehead Wrinkles" Is MADAME ISEBELL'S OPINION

Mrs. W. H. writes me that her feet "ache all the time and what can she do for them. She is hardly able to do her work about the house."

I think it was Napoleon who said that to army was stronger than his feet. At the beginning of the present European war the valiant Belgians captured many German soldiers because the latter were equipped with stiff, badly shod feet.

The lesson is obvious: look to your feet at once. Is your shoe large enough? Does it give room for the toes you are ground grinders? Is the insole firmly held?

These are the three qualifications for a perfect shoe. There is no natural or anatomical reason why a woman's shoe should be different from a man's shoe. The structure of the foot is the same and in proportion to the size, a woman's foot is as large as a man's.

Shoes have a decorative value in a woman's toilet and a thin shoe of some dainty material may well be worn in the evening with house gowns that do not perhaps conform to the necessities of hard service. But for the work of the world the foot must be properly equipped and that work may be soldiering or housework.

Most aching feet are due to improper shoes, but there are other reasons for discomfort. Excessive perspiration or acidity in the perspiration will produce great pain. Are you taking care of your feet? Remember that they have a great proportion of the blood of the body and treat them in accord.

I am afraid that some of our modern fads have something to do with foot discomfort. Women have an idea that if they stand a great deal, especially after meals, they will not grow stout. A woman who stands with her feet without discomfort for it shows that her body is well poised and that the muscular and bone construction of the feet is normal, but, as a form of exercise, prolonged standing is not advised. When you cease writing, sewing or manipulating a typewriter or adding machine, you do not keep on working your fingers; on the contrary, you let them rest.

Best the feet whenever you are while walking is an exercise, standing is not and has no value as such.

One of the feet means bathing every day and careful drying. If they perspire, rub them nightly with alcohol. If they are dry massage them with sweet oil or cold cream. Change the stockings daily and wear white ones as long as the pretty fashion lasts. A lot of forehead wrinkles can be taken out by giving better treatment to the feet.

Mrs. Isebell

EXPLORES SAFE.

OTTAWA, Ontario, Oct. 17.—The southern wing of the Stefansson expedition, under Dr. Anderson, is in good condition and will winter near Cockburn point, according to a report received yesterday by the naval service department. The report, dated at Battle Island, August 21, was brought out by the schooner "Fidelity," which has been in the Arctic for two years trading with the Eskimau. The Anderson party has been busy trading with scientific work throughout the summer.

POSITIVELY MATTERS GROUP.

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound cuts the thick choking mucus, and clears away the phlegm. Opens up the air passages and stops the hoarse cough. The gasping, straining fight for breath gives way to quiet breathing and peaceful sleep. Harold Berg, Mass., writes: "I have Foley's Honey and Tar to our children for cough and it always acts quickly." No wonder a man in Texas walked 15 miles to the store to get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Every user is a friend. Sold everywhere.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY WITH "KEWPIE" PARTY

Little Florence May Trivel, daughter of Mrs. Harry Tyrrel of this city, celebrated her sixth birthday anniversary recently, when sixteen boys and girls enjoyed the "Kewpie" party. As souvenirs of the occasion each guest received a "Kewpie" doll. The home was decorated in pink, cream and baby blue. The little folks enjoyed the program of vocal and instrumental music and recitations. Master Alfred Guernsey and Helen Goucher were awarded prizes for their recitations. The "Spring Dance" was made by Dorothy of the "La La Bell Blues," and "The Rosebud Dance" was presented by Florence May Tyrrel.

EIGHTH GRADE PUPILS PRESENT SHAKESPEARE

In the trial scene from Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice" the pupils of the eighth grade of the Lockwood school, given last evening in the auditorium of the John C. Fremont school, won laurels as amateur thespians. The cast was headed by one of the teachers. The students had made a careful study of the play, as "The Merchant of Venice" is among the Shakespearean dramas that are being studied in the English course in the grammar schools of this city.

Little Dangers Menacing Beauty

By LILLIAN RUSSELL
Copyright, 1914, by LILLIAN RUSSELL.

THE careless housekeeper is a menace to every member of the family. Each undusted nook and corner becomes a resting place for the lurking microbes that sickens and kills human beings. If the doctor tells us we have a few disease germs in our system, he usually prescribes a retreat and waits for his medicine to drive out the invaders, but consciously or unconsciously we court the acquaintance of thousands of these same microbes when we permit dust to accumulate in the home without care.

The kitchen is established as a place for the preparation of wholesome food to give us nourishment and strength. It serves its purpose only when it is kept clean. Otherwise the food it produces to nourish may be deadly poison.

There was recently an interesting investigation in London when dust from a city office, a woman's wardrobe and a kitchen were examined. The result was startling. In a grain of office dust there were 35,400 microbes, and the same amount of wardrobe dust produced 11,200 disease breeders. A grain of dust from the kitchen showed 25,000 microbes. In addition, the kitchen dust contained many varieties of fermenting organisms and molds, all of which were dangerous. The kitchen organisms were largely derived from decayed food.

This is a startling exposure when we consider how readily dust accumulates. It only takes a breath of air to put these microbes into the air. They may cause blood poisoning or possibly through being inhaled might start disease. When we realize the ease with which microbes and dangerous germs gather around us through dust accumulations we are going to take precautions. Even in taking precautions there is danger. Never use brooms and dry dusts to stir up the dust. It merely settles down again and in the settling the dangerous germs are liable to land in the wrong place. A damp cloth should be used for dusting.

Remember: The wily microbes are always ready for entertainment; don't be a foolish hostess.

Answers to Queries.

L. J. N.: Excessive perspiration is sometimes caused from nervousness, but in the summer nearly every one perspires some more freely than others. Sometimes it indicates a rundown condition. A good tonic is often helpful in this case. Mild cases are benefited by bathing the affected surface in water as hot as can be borne. A strong solution of common baking soda and hot water is also effective. Another good wash is one or two drams of alum dissolved in a pint of alcohol. After bathing the affected parts always dust with plain boracic talcum powder.

FLORA: Any pure white soap is good to use on the face. Some people can use certain soaps and others cannot use them at all. If soap leaves your face with a trace of feeling and if it burns then do not use it, for it does not agree with your skin. Almond meal is good for the skin and it is used in place of soap. Do not scrub, but T. I have nothing of the article you mention.

GRACE G.: Be careful when bleaching the stray hairs between the eyebrows that you do not get any of it into your eyes. Apply a small amount of peroxide. This will bleach them. The hair can be pulled out with tweezers. This is rather painful, but the stray hairs will not return. After pulling them out apply a little peroxide and ammonia mixed. Be sure that you do not get it into the eyes.

A. P.: I know nothing about the article you mention. I cannot give advice on proprietary articles. Always massage the wrinkles in the opposite direction in which they run—that is, across the ridges of the wrinkles. I will gladly send you a formula for astringent lotion and dietary for reducing flesh if you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope.

JANE M.: It is not advisable to use olive oil on the face. It will cause a growth of hair. Olive oil is good for developing or filling in hollows, but the skin of the face is tender and there is the least tendency for a growth of hair the olive oil will increase the growth.

UNICE: You are self-conscious; that is why your face burns and becomes red when in company. Forget yourself when you are among people. Think of others. Learn to converse on current events, the latest books and plays. Don't think about your face at all.

Progressives' Guilt Established.

For many weeks Alameda county has been agitated over registration and election frauds committed by Progressives, aided and abetted by other Progressives. Previous to the primary election it was ascertained that six Progressive registrars, working in various parts of the city, on the ferry boats and at the public markets, had been falsifying by wholesale the affidavits of the men and women voters, changing their sworn statements and enrolling them as Progressives in order to deprive them of the right to vote for nominees of their own party and to make it appear that Alameda county was a Progressive stronghold. These crimes were committed, not by dozens and scores, but by hundreds.

During the investigation which followed and after the electors had been notified of this brazen and despicable effort to disfranchise them there was a rush to the county clerk's office where it was found that the frauds committed were so many in number as to absolutely appall honest men. Hundreds of citizens corrected their enrollments and when the lists for the primary election were completed it was found that Alameda county was Republican. The villains who were guilty of the nefarious conduct fled to escape outraged justice.

But during this investigation and the changes following it, the lily white leaders of the Progressive party in this county, followers of Hiram, members of the host that "stood at Armageddon and battled for the Lord," strenuously insisted that there had been no registration frauds, that everything was all right, that the Progressive party was sinless and stainless and none of its members were to be charged with such reprehensible conduct. Efforts were made to thwart the purpose of the inquiry, but of no avail. Abuse was resorted to, but it failed in its purpose and when the work was completed these sponsors for fraud were convicted, because the changes made by the men and women voters were so numerous as to take Alameda county from the Progressive party and place it in the Republican column, where it properly belongs. Although the men guilty of the nefarious conduct mentioned escaped punishment by flight, and by their own acts in fleeing justice convicted themselves in the eyes of the people, their apologists held out to the last ditch and, instead of standing humbled and penitent in the face of an outraged community, brazenly shouted that it was not the conduct of Progressives, when the records showed that every guilty perjurer who changed the registration blanks was a Progressive.

Following the primary election, gross frauds of such a character that no honest citizen could afford to condone them were reported. There was a general demand that an investigation be had. An inquiry was started in the Superior Court of Judge Wells. That jurist ordered a recount with results too well known to repeat, except to say that frauds were found, glaring, deliberate frauds, including tampering with ballots, miscounting, sequestration of records, voting dead men, voting convicts in San Quentin, letting persons vote without ascertaining whether they were on the registration lists or not, polling more votes than were shown on the lists and other offenses.

There was a great public demand for this inquiry, but who opposed it by every technicality in law that he could command? Why an attorney, who claims to be and is a representative of Hiram Johnson. Who stood up in court and fought inch by inch the plan to go to the ballot boxes and expose these frauds? Why, the lily white Progressives, who had the backing of other lily white Progressives in their effort to cause a miscarriage of justice.

But the inquiry was conducted and frauds established. District Attorney Hynes conducted a grand jury investigation and what is the result? Two Progressive heelers and one Socialist are in jail for tampering with ballots and must answer for their crimes, which are so numerous as to demand such heavy bail that they cannot find anyone, not even their Progressive defenders, to go their security. The evidence against them is of such a character the public prosecutor has no doubt of securing a conviction. In this connection it may be stated that the District Attorney proposes to take the trail of the "men behind," the "higher ups" who inspired these poor tools to do their dirty work, a work which every good citizen, regardless of politics, will endorse.

In the face of the record, which shows the Progressive registrars deliberately tried to steal Alameda county by falsifying affidavits by hundreds, which has been proven; in the face of the record which shows that Progressives have been implicated in election frauds, and frauds have been proven, and that two Progressives are now in jail awaiting trial, what now will these lily white Progressive reformers, John W. Stetson, Arthur Arlett and Charles W. Snook, say in explanation?

Stand up, John W. Stetson, Chairman of the Progressive State Committee! Stand up, Arthur Arlett, personal representative of Hiram Johnson and reputed to be his Alameda county mouthpiece! Stand up Charles Snook, lily white reformer! Do you still deny there were registration frauds committed in Alameda county by Progressives for the benefit of the Progressive party? Do you still deny there were election frauds committed in Alameda county by Progressives? Answer if you can.

Turkey has no money and must therefore demobilize her army. Here is a suggestion to the European financiers who claim they want to end the war.

According to the San Leandro Standard the Progressive candidate for Congress in this district is posing as a Democrat. The Standard says he "personally assured it that if elected he will support every move for social and economic reform advocated by the present Federal administration." In other words the Progressive candidate stands for lower tariff duties, less protection for California producers, charges on American shipping through the canal and war taxes in times of peace. These are Democratic "economic reform" measures.

Submarine as Fighting Craft.

Another British cruiser has been torpedoed and sent to the bottom by a German submarine in the North Sea. Only fifty of the crew of four hundred were saved. This is the fourth good sized English warship that has been destroyed by the little fighting craft that seeks its prey beneath the surface of the water and is an antagonist to be viewed with terror because of its method of attack.

The submarine is fast demonstrating its superiority over the great battleboats. Against it the big guns are useless, except on rare occasions. It steals alongside "like a thief in the night" and unless some sharp eye can detect its periscope and destroy it in time, there is little hope for the men behind the steel walls of the larger craft. Within striking distance the torpedo is loosened, the submarine backs to safety and the gigantic adversary goes to the bottom a wrecked and tangled mass.

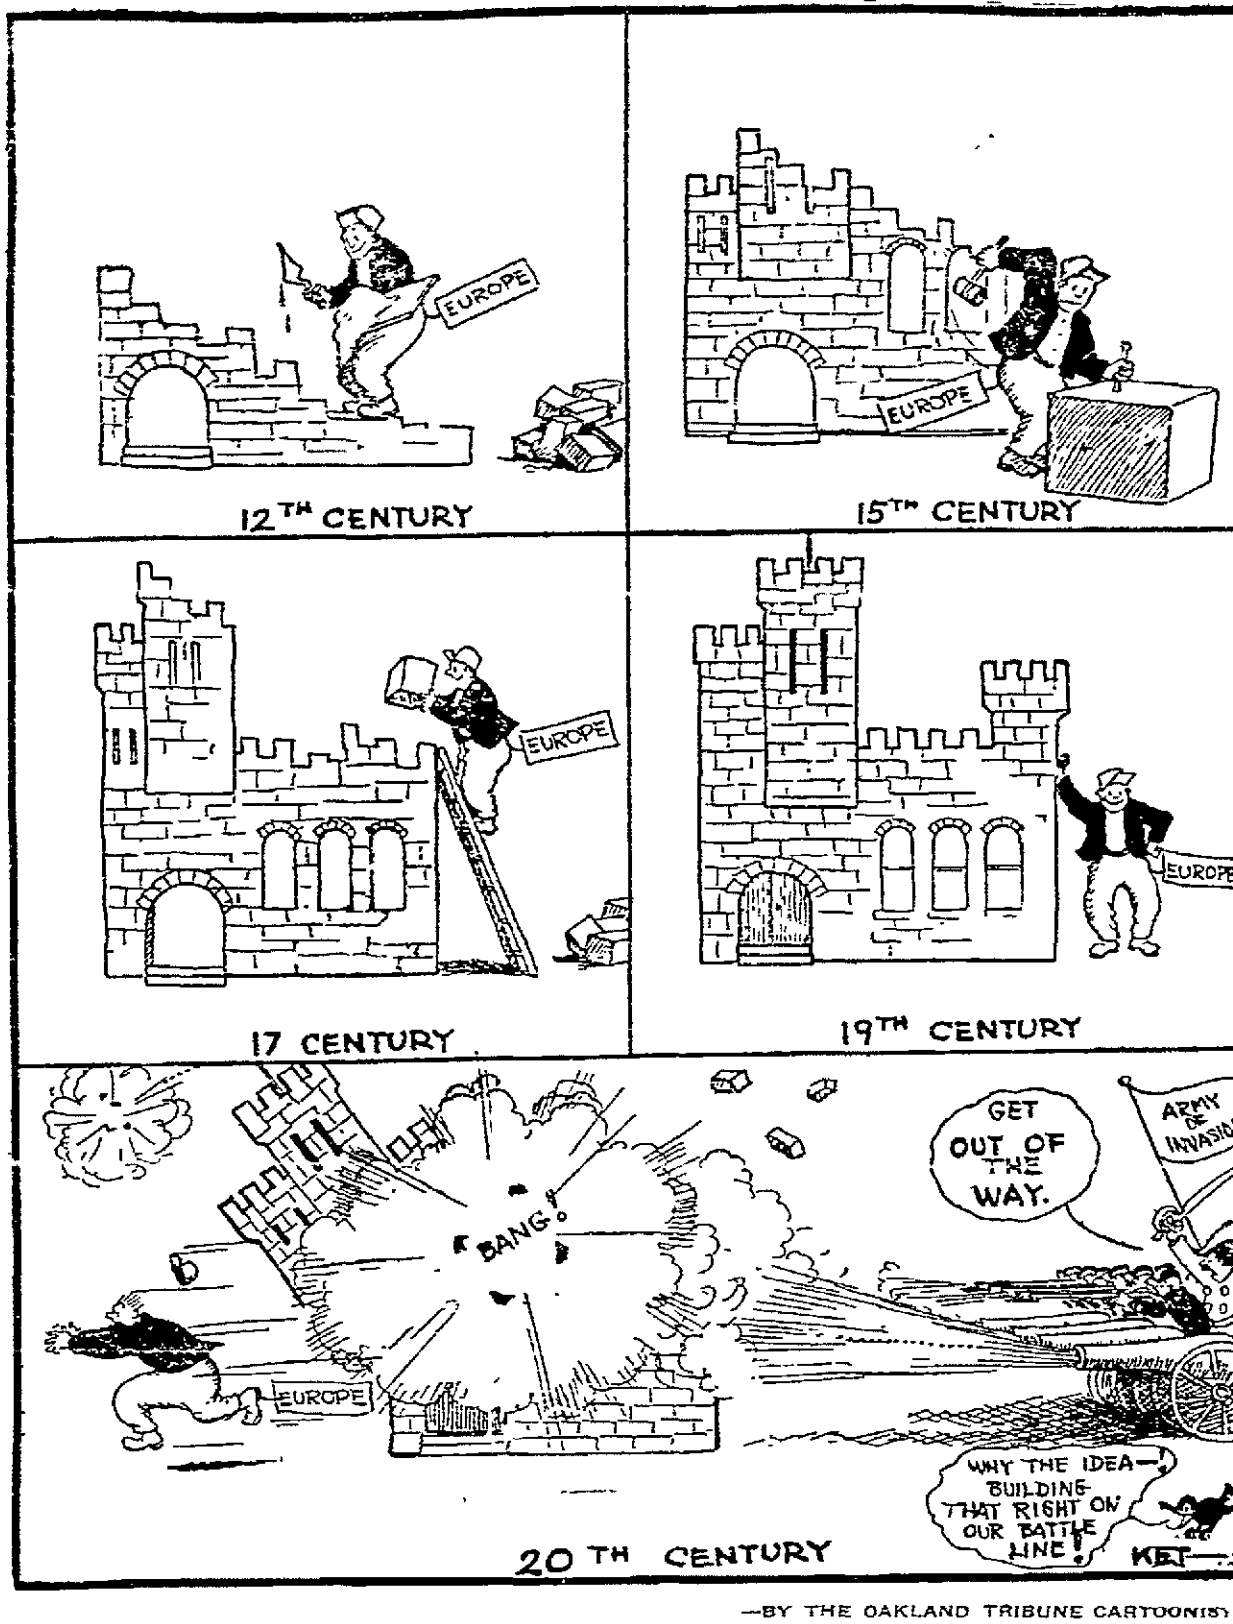

Dreadnaughts are all right against dreadnaughts, and in some instances are effective against certain varieties of fortifications, but the submarine appears to be the most dangerous of all the units of a fleet. The dreadnaughts cost millions each, the submarines a sum negligible in quantity in comparison. Yet the submarine has by far the greater ability when properly handled.

In the light of the experiences of this war it looks as if the construction of dreadnaughts as a first line of defense will be substituted by submarine building, this judgment being confirmed by the opinion of many naval officers of standing in our own and other countries.

"Death Valley Scotty," that monumental faker of the palmy days of Goldfield, recently appeared in San Bernardino with a lot of rich rock which he said he obtained in the same old place. Inasmuch as Scotty was proven to be a "high grader" of the most persistent sort, some of those desert miners better look over their ore sacks.

A Paterson, New Jersey, judge dismissed a man who was charged by his wife with having an affinity when it was shown that the accused earned only eight dollars a week, the court holding that a man who could keep two women on that sum deserved his freedom. Another Daniel come to judgment.

The Democrats turned out in large numbers to attend the barbecue at San Lorenzo grove. The meeting was presided over by Charles Heyer. The principal speeches of the afternoon were by James Budd and W. T. Jeter.

Perhaps the most amusing feature of the campaign is the combination between the Democrats and the Prohibitionists. Not only has the local democracy endorsed a Prohibitionist for county treasurer, but Mr. Budd invited Mr. French, the Prohibition candidate for Governor, to speak from the platform with him.

The block on Washington street, between Eighth and Ninth streets, is now one of the most dangerous in the city for vehicles, because of the narrowness of the thoroughfare. This morning there was a race in the block between a heavy vegetable wagon and a car. The wagon, occupying the middle of the road, Theodore Gier's carriage was crossing into Washington street at Ninth. It avoided the car but was struck and badly damaged by the vegetable wagon.

Few people realize what a tremendous industry the new packing industry is in this country. COURT SENTENCES GAS PIPE THUG TO PRISON

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Superior Judge Dunne refused clemency to James McCormick, who on July 16, admitted to the horrible beating of Albert Brandy, a baker, was today sentenced to 10 years at hard labor at San Quentin Penitentiary. McCormick was convicted of entering Brandy's bakery, striking him over the head with a pipe of cast-iron pipe and attempting to escape with the contents of the cash register. He was captured while endeavoring to make his getaway.

letics. It would undoubtedly be a good thing for both Stanford and California, but for only one of the schools to have the right to grant the "collegiate" chances of U. C. Adopting the rule again are exceedingly small unless Stanford is a party to the agreement.*

CINCINNATI TO HAVE FEDERAL CLUB

CINCINNATI, Oct. 17.—The placing of a Federal League ball team in this city next year was announced last night as the result of a deal struck by John J. Connelly, an attorney, who has represented that league in this city since its inception. Connelly said a number of organized baseball players are under contract for the club.

WALNUT CREEK IS NOW REAL CITY

Incorporation Election Results in Victory for Boosters for Project.

WALNUT CREEK, Oct. 17.—Walnut Creek is now a real city. By a vote of 187 out of 214, the efforts of the local citizens to incorporate the town were declared successful by the election officers last night following the count of the ballot boxes. The city will be incorporated as a city of the sixth class, governed by a board of town trustees.

The incorporation victory is the result of a spirited campaign waged by local boosters and commercial organizations. Boosters have proper police and fire protection, and other advantages of an incorporated city were advanced as reasons for the plan.

The voting was unusually heavy. With the incorporation election was also held the election for town officers, the following being elected:

Trustees, Armand Stow, H. F. Spencer, W. S. Burpee, Joe Lawrence, W. F. Robinson, Miss Mary Ridgeway was elected town clerk and Joseph L. Silveira treasurer.

PERFECTING PLANS FOR CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 17.—Elaborate plans are under way for the big chrysanthemum show to be held by local and near-by growers in the new exhibit hall of the local grammar school. The exhibition will be opened next Thursday and Friday.

Norman D. Kelly of Berkeley, president of the California Botanical Society, and Mrs. D. W. Devere, of Oakland, will act as judges at the unique exhibition. Prizes will be offered for best specimens, best collections, best displays of mixed varieties and other exhibits. The committee in charge have secured many exhibits from different gardens in the county and have under way plans for making the show an annual event.

The show will be held at the grammar school, which is being prepared for the purpose. The local chapter of the California Botanical Society and the local chapter of the American Horticultural Society will be asked to assist in the work.

SCHOOLMATES GIVE PARTY.
SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 17.—Arthur Larson was tendered a surprise party this week by his schoolmates. The affair was held at the Larson home on Ward street. Among the guests were the following named: Adele Taraveller, Rhoda Perry, Violet Malone, Mabel Garcia, Flossie Tromba, Caroline Bragg and Madeline and Dorothy Larson and John Zittman. The affair was planned by Mrs. Larson, assisted by her daughter, Madeline.

TOWN STUDIES ESPERANTO.
SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 17.—San Leandro has taken up Esperanto, a large class of local people are studying the international language and a series of lectures by noted speakers in Esperanto is being planned. Dr. R. F. Parrish is directing the students.

CHARGES UNDER INFLUENCE.
MARTINEZ, Oct. 17.—Manuel Marcel of this city, has applied for letters of administration in the estate of his wife, who died several weeks ago. The estate is valued at $12,000. Marcel says that it was willed to a stepson, Antonio Enos, through undue influence.

START DITCH WORK.
BRENTWOOD, Oct. 17.—Work on excavating the big ditch for the Brentwood irrigation project is now well under way. Lateral contracts are being let by a number of stockholders in the project.

BAD OPERATION AVOIDED

By Timely Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Sowers' Own Statement.

"Hodgdon, Maine. 'I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine.'—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Maine.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (Incorporated) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

SUFFRAGISTS AID WAR SUFFERERS

Abandon Propaganda to Aid in Relieving Existing Distress.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The women suffragists are doing new work in relieving distress caused by the war.

The votes-for-women propaganda has been abandoned completely for the present and many of the organizations are placing their efforts on the relief of the war sufferers. In London alone there are some 10,000 women who are earning their own living before the war, but who have since become destitute, many facing starvation.

The Active Service League of the National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies, which includes in its ranks over 600 societies which have been working for suffrage by constitutional means, has been asked to take up the work of relief.

In a shop on Parliament street, and the branch office, throughout the country are also filled with suffragists working for their country. The workers distinguish themselves by wearing a uniform consisting of a dark green coat and skirt, green felt hats with badges and ties of red and green—the union's colors.

The assistance of German women and girls stranded in London is included in the relief program.

OFFER HOSPITALITY.
The union has had many offers of hospitality for stranded people, and many private school mistresses have offered free education for daughters of officers killed in action. Several workrooms have been started where out-of-work women are paid 40 shillings a week of forty hours—the Trade Union rate—for making garments which are given to destitute people.

Many pathetic cases have been aided. A British girl, a children's nurse in Paris, wrote after a four-year engagement in Chile. She left Paris when a siege was threatened, leaving her luggage behind, and before the union found her she had been living for three days in London on bread and butter and tea.

One woman offered hospitality to a Belgian woman who had been driven from her home and who did not know whether at the end of the month it would drop altogether or not. She was anxious while she could afford it to have so great a privilege as that of giving shelter to a Belgian.

RECEIVES CHILDREN.
Another woman who was at a small inn received two Belgian children, who were taken to her by a Belgian woman. Suddenly the children began to shout for joy, for they recognized in the hostess their mother, from whom they had been separated during the war.

An Englishwoman doctor, married to a German doctor, was suddenly found the whole of her income cut off, as her husband, having to live under the restrictions of the war, had lost all his practice.

A journalist who had been earning $3500 a year and was discharged by his paper, enlisted, as he was penniless. If the wife gets all his pay and her office allowance, she will only have about $5 a week.

At Manchester work is being found in a warehouse for 500 women and penny dinners are provided. At Southampton the art gallery has been turned into a women's workroom. In Dublin the suffragists, by getting an army contract for a jam factory where girls are employed, saved it from closing down.

ALASKA COAL LANDS OPEN TO OPERATORS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Every opportunity needed for the development of the Alaska coal fields is contained in the leasing bill passed by Congress on Thursday, according to Clay Tallichman, manager of the General Land Office, who was in San Francisco yesterday on one of his tours of inspection among the land offices.

Operators will be able to go into the Alaska coal fields on at least as easy terms as are now enjoyed by lessees in the United States. The new law will not be handicapped by having to own the lands. However, said the commissioner, the opening up of the Alaska fields is entirely dependent upon the building of the railroad from the coast to Fairbanks. Nothing can be done until the road is routed.

WARRANT FOR ARREST OF SHORB CANCELLED

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Bernardo J. Shorb, son of the wealthy pioneer family, will not be brought back to San Francisco from Sacramento to stand trial on a charge of passing an alleged worthless check for $50 on Annie Windsor. The United States marshal, who had been ordered to bring Shorb back to San Francisco, yesterday said a partial payment had been made by a relative of Shorb Judge Deasy thereupon cancelled the warrant.

PROMOTERS DISMISSED.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Five men charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Emmerl Sexton, a prizefighter known as "Young" Huddell, were discharged yesterday by Police Judge J. J. Deasy. The accused were Gregory Mitchell, promoter; Bert McCullough, referee; Arthur Carroll, Sexton's opponent; Marvin McGuire and Charles Standford, seconds. The court's action followed the verdict of the coroner's jury that Sexton's death was accidental.

APPEALS TO SENATE.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—James Eades How, the self-styled "millionaire hobo," heading a "committee of the unemployed," yesterday urged the Senate education committee to report favorably the Martine bill to provide that the government take over the operation of mines and other industries to give work to every person applying for it. How told the committee that 150,000 men were idle in New York and between 75,000 and 100,000 in Philadelphia.

MARE ISLAND NOTES

MARE ISLAND, Oct. 17.—The destroyer Farragut has been moored alongside the former Mare Island receiving ship. Farragut and the crew of the monitor craft will see that the former guards is kept in first-class condition, even though she is out of commission.

The destroyer Hopkins of the second division of the Pacific torpedo boat flotilla was docked at Mare Island Friday. Eight marines have been ordered transferred from the Mare Island Marine Barracks to the Far East.

The collier Nero left the navy yard at 10:30 o'clock Friday morning for California City.

Professor T. J. I. See, U. S. N., in charge of the Mare Island Observatory, is to spend next week at Berkeley. Professor See has been detached from the Mare Island Hospital and will join the cruiser South Dakota.

The outcome of the coal experiments will be watched with interest, for if the Alaskan coal comes up to naval requirements it will be burned in the future by all of the men-of-war on this coast.

TO FIGURE ON HULLS.

MARE ISLAND, Oct. 17.—Orders have been issued for the machinery department estimators to figure on the cost of constructing one and two torpedo destroyers. The figures will be forwarded to Washington. The hull estimators will also figure on the cost of building one and two destroyer hulls.

AGED MAN TRIES TO KILL FAMILY

Sprinkles Strychnine in Syrup and Upon Fruit; Is Jailed.

Placerville, Oct. 17.—George Bailey, about 75 years of age, has twice tried to poison his family and each time without success. While they had him jailed for the latest offense, they will prefer no charges on his promise to live with his married daughter in Placerville. Yesterday he jumped enough strychnine into a glass of syrup to kill a rooster, but the poison was detected in time by his daughter-in-law's mother, Mrs. B. C. Ward.

An analysis later proved the poison to be strychnine and so liberal was the quantity that it rose to the top like foam.

Two weeks ago Bailey sought to kill his wife by sprinkling a can of strychnine with slychnine. Eldo Duets, returning from his school, bit into the slychnine and was warned by the bitter taste.

San Francisco, Oct. 17.—Superior Judge Coffey yesterday directed J. J. Mack, executor of the will of John M. Keefe, mining man, to deliver to Mrs. James Chamberlain the $10,000 bequeathed to her in the testament. The petition to force the carrying out of the provision was filed last week.

Sacramento, Oct. 17.—Joseph D. Cornell, well-known local attorney, has been indicted by the Grand Jury on a charge of embezzling $14,750 from the Mary Caples estate, of which he was trustee. The indictment followed the finding of the Superior Court that there was a shortage in the estate. Cornell's resignation was sent in and accepted.

Stockton, Oct. 17.—The local City Council yesterday passed an ordinance prescribing regulations governing the installation of telephones. It provides that upon an application in writing by the owner or occupant of any building within the city limits of the city of Stockton to any person, firm or corporation furnishing telephonic service in this city the owner must supply him with the telephone service.

Sacramento, Oct. 17.—Archibald K. MacKillop, salesman for the West Sacramento Land Company, was struck and fatally injured here yesterday by an automobile driven by a "C" E. Wilber, son, with whom he had been riding. Brothers' machine approached unnoticed, and MacKillop was struck as the latter started to cross the street.

Weaverville, Oct. 17.—The citizens of Trinity county are allowed to vote as they please. There has not been a single public meeting within its borders since the opening of the campaign. Not a single candidate for a State or Congressional office has appeared in the county. Not a candidate for the State Senate or the Assembly has made his appearance. No political meetings have been held to disturb the voters in their conversion to the political position. The sharpest contests being for sheriff and district attorney.

San Jose, Oct. 17.—Threats of grand jury indictments for malfeasance in office growing out of the establishment of city officials of a segregated district in San Jose, Mayor Fred R. Husted last night ordered the Police Commission to threaten to suspend every member of the commission who did not support a resolution introduced by Commissioner James P. Starr ordering the immediate closing of the tenders. The resolutions were adopted by a vote of three to two. Mayor Husted said he was not in favor of the closing of the tenders and opposed the closing of the tenders as demanded by Commissioner Starr.

San Jose, Oct. 17.—Hunters searching for a cougar in the San Jose State Park, six miles east of San Jose, yesterday witnessed a death struggle between a five-pointed deer and a mountain lion. The United States war was cancelled yesterday on an automobile tour about the Santa Clara Valley. Upon departing the visitors were supplied with a basket lunch and a bottle of water. The tour was organized by a committee from the Women's Club with flowers, ferns, smilax and pepper. The party was in charge of Charles S. Fee, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific.

Reading, Oct. 17.—A severe earthquake shock felt in Montgomery Creek region was followed early yesterday by the fifty-sixth eruption of Lassen Peak. The tremor was felt within a radius of ten miles from the town of Montgomery Creek, which is fifteen miles from Lassen Peak.

San Jose, Oct. 17.—Five hundred traveling passenger agents of a score of transcontinental railroads and their wives were guests of the Chamber of Commerce and San Jose Chamber of Commerce yesterday on an automobile tour about the Santa Clara Valley. Upon departing the visitors were supplied with a basket lunch and a bottle of water. The tour was organized by a committee from the Women's Club with flowers, ferns, smilax and pepper. The party was in charge of Charles S. Fee, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific.

SHIP LEAVES SITKA.
MARE ISLAND, Oct. 17.—The cruiser Buffalo which leaves SITKA, Alaska, next Tuesday for Mare Island, is expected to take at least five days to make the trip down the coast. The vessel will be docked as soon as she arrives at the local naval station, as she is under orders to leave for La Brea, Mexico.
